

This feature allows you to delete your special game account from this site outside certain period of time.

Using the self-exclusion feature, you will not be able to access your special game account and perform a game activity during the period specified by you (from 6 months to 5 years).

However, using this feature will not deprive you of the opportunity to withdraw funds from your special game account.

Periods available:

- Six months
- One year
- Two years
- Five years
